Fifth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 5:20-24 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Unless your justice abound more than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. You have heard that it was said to them of old: 'Thou shalt not kill.' And whosoever shall kill, shall be in danger of the judgment. But I say to you, that whosoever is angry with his brother, shall be in danger of the judgment. And whosoever shall say to his brother, 'Raca,' shall be in danger of the council. And whosoever shall say, 'Thou fool', shall be in danger of hell fire. If therefore thou offer thy gift at the altar, and there thou remember that thy brother hath anything against thee; Leave there thy offering before the altar, and go first to be reconciled to thy brother, and then coming thou shalt offer thy gift."

Among the early movers of the Counter-Reformation was Anthony Zaccaria. His mother became a widow at 18 and devoted herself to the spiritual education of her son. He received a medical doctorate at 22, and while working among the poor of his native Cremona in Italy, was attracted to the religious apostolate. He renounced his rights to any future inheritance, worked as a catechist, and was ordained a priest at the age of 26.

Called to Milan in a few years, he laid the foundations of three religious congregations, one for men, one for women, and an association of married couples. Their aim was the reform of the decadent society of their day, beginning with the clergy, religious, and lay people.

Greatly inspired by Saint Paul—his congregation is named the Barnabites, after the companion of that saint. Anthony preached with great vigor in church and street, conducted popular missions, and was not ashamed of doing public penance.

He encouraged such innovations as the collaboration of the laity in the apostolate, frequent Communion, the Forty Hours devotion, and the ringing of church bells at 3:00 p.m. on Fridays. His holiness moved many to reform their lives, but as with all saints, it also moved many to oppose him. Twice his community had to undergo official religious investigation, and twice it was exonerated.

While on a mission of peace, he became seriously ill and was brought home for a visit to his mother. He died at Cremona at the age of 36.

Twenty-seven years after his death, his body was found to be incorrupt. His mortal remains are now enshrined at the Church of St. Barnabas in Milan, Italy. St. Anthony was canonized by Pope Leo XIII on 27 May 1897. His feast day is celebrated on 5 July.

Also following his death, a number of cures were attributed to the intercession of St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria. He is a patron saint of physicians.

Reflection

The austerity of Anthony's spirituality and the Pauline ardor of his preaching would probably "turn off" many people today. When even some psychiatrists complain at the lack of a sense of sin, it may be time to tell ourselves that not all evil is explained by emotional disorder, subconscious and unconscious drives, parental influence, and so on. The old-time "hell and damnation" mission sermons have given way to positive, encouraging, biblical homilies. We do indeed need assurance of forgiveness, relief from existential anxiety, and future shock. But we still need prophets to stand up and tell us, "If we say 'We are without sin,' we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us" (John 1:8).

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- If you are new to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals, found in the pews, helpful in following the liturgy.
- Parishioners, friends and visitors are welcome to refreshments in the church hall following the 9:00 AM Mass.
- In your kindness, please remember to pray for those listed on the Memorial Page, and all the deceased members of the chapel.
- Please consider including The Chapel of the Holy Family in your estate plans. The Chapel is grateful for your continuing support, which helps to preserve and sustain the traditional liturgy & faith of the Roman Catholic Church in the Melbourne area.

July is the month of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ

The Chaplet of the Precious Blood

This devotion consists of seven mysteries in which we meditate on the seven main shedding of the Precious Blood of Jesus Christ. The Our Father is said five times after each mystery except for the last, when it is said three times-----in all thirty-three times in honor of the thirty-three years of Our Savior's life on earth.

V. O God, come to my assistance!

R. Lord, make haste to help me!

V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost,

R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

FIRST MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Circumcision.

Let us ask for chastity of soul and body.

Our Father five times, Glory be to the Father once.

V. We pray Thee, Lord, help Thy servants!

R. Whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy Precious Blood! (This invocation to the Precious Blood is said after the Our Father and Glory be of each mystery.)

SECOND MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Agony while praying in the Garden of Olives.

Let us ask for the spirit of prayer.

THIRD MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Scourging at the Pillar.

Let us ask for patience and self-control.

FOURTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the Crowning with Thorns.

Let us ask for humility to atone for pride.

FIFTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood while carrying His Cross to Calvary.

Let us ask for acceptance of our daily crosses.

SIXTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed His Blood in the terrible Crucifixion.

Let us ask for contrition.

SEVENTH MYSTERY

Jesus shed Blood and water from His side pierced by the Lance.

Let us ask for perseverance.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well.

As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
