GOSPEL Mark 8:1-9 In those days, when there was a great multitude and they had nothing to eat; calling His disciples together, He said to them: "I have compassion on the multitude, for behold they have now been with Me three days and have nothing to eat. And if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them came from afar off." And His disciples answered Him: "From whence can anyone fill them here with bread in the desert?" And He asked them: "How many loaves have you?" And they said: "Seven." And He commanded the people to sit down on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke and gave them to His disciples and they set them before the crowd. And they had a few little fishes; and He blessed them and commanded them to be set before them. And they ate and were filled; and they took up that which was left of the fragments, seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four thousand. And He sent them away.

Saint Jerome Emiliani's Story ~ Born 1481 at Venice, Italy to a wealthy family, his father died when Jerome was a teenager, and he ran away from home at age 15. After a dissolute youth, he became a soldier in 1506.

A careless and irreligious soldier for the city-state of Venice, Jerome was captured in a military campaign at an outpost town and chained in a dungeon. In prison Jerome had a lot of time to think, and he gradually learned how to pray. When he escaped, he hung his metal chains in the nearby church -- in gratitude not only for being freed from physical prison but from his spiritual dungeon as well. Jerome returned to Venice where he took charge of the education of his nephews—and began his own studies for the priesthood. He is believed to have developed the question-and-answer catechism technique for teaching children religion.

In the years after his ordination, events again called St. Jerome to a decision and a new lifestyle. Plague and famine swept northern Italy. St. Jerome began caring for the sick and feeding the hungry at his own expense. While serving the sick and the poor, he soon resolved to devote himself and his property solely to others, particularly to abandoned children. He founded three orphanages, a shelter for penitent prostitutes and a hospital. Around 1532, St. Jerome and two other priests established a congregation, the Clerks Regular of Somasca, dedicated to the care of orphans and the education of youth.

St. Jerome died in 1537, at the age of 56, from the disease he contracted while tending the sick.

St. Jerome was beatified September 29, 1747 by Pope Benedict XIV, and canonized July 16, 1767 by Pope Clement XIII. In 1928, Pius XI named him the patron of orphans and abandoned children. His Liturgical Feast Day is July 20th.

Reflection:

Very often in our lives it seems to take some kind of "imprisonment" to free us from the shackles of our self-centeredness. When we're "caught" in some situation we don't want to be in, we finally come to know the power of prayer. Only then can we become available to "the imprisoned" and "the orphaned" all around us.

Prayer:

Saint Jerome Emiliani, watch over all children who are abandoned or unloved. Give us the courage to show them God's love through our care. Help us to lose the chains that keep us from living the life God intended for us. Amen

In His Footsteps: Volunteer to be an educator at our church to teach catechism to our young people. It is the responsibility of all Catholic parents to provide Catholic teaching to their children. Please see James DeFillips for more information.

- Please consider including The Chapel of the Holy Family in your estate plans. The Chapel is grateful for your continuing support, which helps to preserve and sustain the traditional liturgy & faith of the Roman Catholic Church in the Melbourne area.

Gospel Commentary: Saint Ambrose, who compares the miraculous repast mentioned in today's Gospel with the other multiplication of loaves brought before us on the fourth Sunday of Lent; and he remarks how, both in spiritual nourishment and in that which refreshes the body, there are various degrees of excellence.

The Bridegroom does not ordinarily serve up the choicest wine, He does not produce the daintiest dishes, at the beginning of the banquet He has prepared for His dear ones. Besides, there are many souls here below who are not capable of rising, beyond a certain limit, towards the divine and substantial light, which is the nourishment of the spirit.

To these, therefore—and they are the majority, and are representative of the four thousand men who were present at the first miraculous multiplication—the five loaves of inferior quality are an appropriate food, and one that, by its very number, is in keeping with the five senses, which, more or less, have dominion over the multitude.

But, as for the privileged favorites of grace; as for those men who are not distracted by the cares of this present life, who scorn to use its permitted pleasures, and who, even while in the flesh, make God the only king of their soul; for these, and for these only, the Bridegroom reserves the pure wheat of the seven loaves, which, by their number, express the plenitude of the Holy Spirit, and mysteries in abundance.

Dom Prosper Gueranger

Basic Morning Prayers:

Dear God, I offer Thee today, All I do, think, suffer and say. Please bless me, Dear Jesus and help me through the day.

Angel of God, my guardian dear, to whom God's love entrust me here, ever this day be at my side to light and guard, to rule and guide.

Act of Faith ~ O my God, I firmly believe that you are one God in three divine Persons; the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost. I believe that Thy Divine Son became man and died for our sins and that He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe these and all truths which the Holy Catholic Church teaches, because Thou hast revealed them, Who canst neither deceive nor be deceived.

Act of Hope ~ O my God, relying on Thine infinite goodness and promises, I hope to obtain pardon of my sins, the help of Thy grace, and life everlasting, through the merits of Jesus Christ, my Lord and Redeemer.

Act of Love ~ O my God, I love Thee above all things with my whole heart and soul, because Thou art all good and worthy of all love. I love my neighbor as myself for the love of Thee. I forgive all who have injured me and ask pardon of all whom I have injured.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
