

Pro-life Catholics gather 7,700 roses for Pelosi on Our Lady of Guadalupe Feast

By Katie Yoder

Washington, D.C. Newsroom, Dec 14, 2021 / 11:47 am

A pro-life campaign led by the archbishop of San Francisco gathered thousands of roses for House Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-Calif.) outside the U.S. Capitol on the feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe.

“The Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, patroness of the unborn, is a fitting day to send a shower of roses to Speaker Pelosi,” Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone, Pelosi’s archbishop, said in a statement. “Each one represents a Catholic praying and fasting for Nancy Pelosi’s conversion to the Gospel of Life.”

The roses are part of the “Rose and a Rosary for Nancy Pelosi” campaign, hosted by the Benedict XVI Institute for Sacred Music and Divine Worship at the archbishop’s request. The campaign invites Catholics to pray and fast for the conversion of the speaker, who backs abortion legislation, including the Women’s Health Protection Act. For every person that signs up, the campaign promises to send a rose to the California Democrat who identifies as Catholic.

Man on Video Vandalizes Our Lady of Fatima Statue Outside National Basilica in DC

The search continues for the suspect who vandalized a statue of Our Lady of Fatima outside the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday. The incident was captured on film by a nearby surveillance camera.

Mass exodus: More than half of Irish Catholics have continued to stay away from church since COVID

Thu Dec 9, 2021 - 8:08 pm EST

(LifeSiteNews) – A recent survey shows that more than half of Ireland’s former Mass-goers have chosen not to return largely due to fear of COVID-19 and weakened faith.

A November 2021 Amárach Research survey of Irish Catholics found that more than 53 percent of those who “identified as Mass-goers” before COVID-19 have not been going to Mass since.

German Police Arrest Santa Claus for Not Wearing a Mask.

German guards throttling Santa and dragging him away definitely qualifies for farce. In the end, dictators and tyranny is always a farce. In the end we shake our heads as if to clear it and then wonder how people in the past could've been that stupid. We shake our heads at the stupidity of our ancestors while running headlong into the same future.