

Protesters Mobilize Against Box Office Failure Benedetta

December 27, 2021 | Francis Slobodnik

Protesters Mobilize Against Box Office Failure Benedetta

The film Benedetta was released nationwide on December 3 during the holy season of Advent. Traditionally, the faithful prepare for the Holy Day of Christmas during Advent. However, one way of preparation has been a corresponding wave of protests to meet this blasphemous film.

The American Society for the Defense of Tradition, Family and Property (TFP) and its America Needs Fatima campaign organized rosary rallies of reparation and protests in front of theaters everywhere. The dismal box office receipts prove that the anti-Catholic film is a spectacular failure.

Benedetta is arguably one of the most sacrilegious and blasphemous films ever. This film is the work of Dutch director Paul Verhoeven, 83, who viciously attacks all that is holy in many ways. The film attacks the sacred human nature of Our Lord Jesus Christ, Mary Most Holy in unspeakable ways, the Catholic Church and the consecrated religious life of nuns.

Chicago Priests Must Now Get Permission to Celebrate Latin Mass

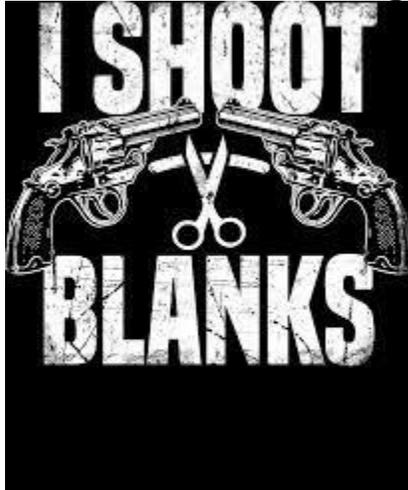

Chicago Cardinal Blase Cupich announced that he has prohibited the celebration of traditional Latin Masses on the first Sunday of every month, Christmas, the Holy Triduum, Easter Sunday, and Pentecost Sunday.

The cardinal applied norms issued by Pope Francis in his July 16 letter known as "Traditionis Custodes" (Guardians of Tradition), which called for sweeping restrictions on the celebration of the traditional Latin Mass.

As of Jan. 25, 2022, all priests, deacons, and instituted ministers in the Chicago archdiocese must request and receive permission from the Archbishop of Chicago to celebrate the Eucharist using the antecedent liturgy, that is the Roman Missal of 1962, either privately or publicly.

Traditional Latin Masses can no longer take place in a parish church unless both the archbishop and the Vatican agree to grant an exemption.

Some “Men” Are Getting Vasectomies To Protest Texas Abortion Law

Are they nuts? Daily Caller reports: “A Texas doctor said his practice has seen a nearly 15% increase in vasectomies as men try to push back against the state’s abortion law, The Washington Post (WaPo) reported Sunday.