Fifth Sunday After Epiphany

GOSPEL Matt. 13:24-30 At that time, Jesus spoke this parable to the multitudes: "The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man that sowed good seed in his field. But while men were asleep, his enemy came and sowed cockle among the wheat, and went away. And when the blade sprung up, and had brought forth fruit, then appeared also the cockle. And the servants of the good man of the house coming, said to him, Sir, did you not sow good seed in thy field? how then does it have cockle? And he said to them, an enemy has done this. And the servants said to him, Will you have us go and gather it up? And he said, No: lest perhaps gathering up the cockle you root up the wheat also together with it. Let both grow until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest, I will say to the reapers, gather up first the cockle, and bind it into bundles to burn, but the wheat gather into my barn."

Valentine of Terni, officially Saint Valentine of Rome, born 226 AD was a widely recognized 3rd-century Roman saint and since the High Middle Ages is associated with a tradition of courtly love.

He was a Roman Priest at a time when emperor Claudias was persecuting the church. Claudias issued an edict that prohibited the marriage of young people. This was based on the hypothesis that unmarried soldiers fought better than married soldiers because married soldiers might be afraid of what might happen to them or their wives or families if they died.

This edict immediately presented a problem to the Christian church. The idea of encouraging young people to marry within the Christian church was what Saint Valentine was about. And he secretly married them because of the edict.

Saint Valentine was eventually caught, imprisoned and tortured for performing marriage ceremonies against the command of Emperor Claudius. There are legends surrounding Saint Valentine's actions while in prison.

One of the men who was to judge him in line with the Roman law at the time was called Asterius, whose daughter was blind. Saint Valentine was supposed to have prayed with and healed the young girl with such astonishing effect that Asterius himself became Christian as a result.

In the year 269 AD, on February 14th, Saint Valentine was sentenced to a three-part execution of a beating, stoning, and finally decapitation all because of his stand for Christian marriage. The story goes that the last words he wrote were in a note to Asterius' daughter. He inspired today's romantic missives by signing it, "from your Valentine."

The relics of Saint Valentine were kept in the Church and Catacombs of San Valentino in Rome, which remained an important pilgrim site throughout the Middle Ages until the relics were transferred to the church of Santa Prassede. The flower-crowned skull of Saint Valentine is exhibited in the Basilica of Santa Maria in Cosmedin, Rome; other relics were brought to Whitefriar Street Carmelite Church in Dublin, Ireland where they remain to this day.

Saint Valentine has come to be known as the patron saint of lovers. If he were here today, he would say to married couples – "there comes a time where you're going to have to suffer. It's not going to be easy to maintain your commitment and your vows in marriage. Don't be surprised if the 'gushing' love that you have for someone changes to something less "gushing" but maybe much more mature."

~ Holy Family School's PROGRESS REPORT for the traditional K-2 school on the premises beginning August 2022 ~

Holy Family School has hired our K-2 teacher with the hopes of needing another one. Most of our curriculum (Our Lady of Victory curriculum) has been selected and we are in the process of ordering furniture. An open house is planned in mid-March. Many positive things are happening, but there is still a lot of work to do.

We are selling religious articles in the cry room at the back of the church. Most of the articles are from Fr. Don Primi's estate and were donated by his family. Please make a donation for any articles you want to buy. Proceeds go to the school.

For anyone interested in attending the school or volunteering at the school, please contact a school board member: Ken Peldunas, Tricia Coburn or Tony Verzi at 321-615-2850.

Holy Family School is looking for a parishioner(s) with public relations experience who is willing to give us direction concerning publicity for the start-up of the school. Please contact one of the school board members: Ken Peldunas, Tricia Coburn or Tony Versi at 321-615-2850.

THE SEVEN SACRAMENTS

It is important that you know whether you have Sanctifying Grace in your soul or not. It is something you cannot afford to be uncertain about. A religious feeling does not indicate the presence of Sanctifying Grace in the soul. Therefore, Jesus Christ had to give us some signs which would indicate that Grace is going into the soul. He had to give us signs that we could see, feel, hear or experience with some of the five senses. He gave us seven such signs by which we could know that we are receiving Grace. These signs are the seven Sacraments.

It is critically important that we remember the sacraments are not traditions. They are not little rituals we play out like the make-believe games of childhood. They have the power to bring heaven to earth, rip the veil between all things seen and unseen, and allow humanity and eternity to commingle in mysterious, yet palpable ways. Through the sacraments, heaven comes, not just to visit, but to live with us and in us. In the sacraments, we are graced.

Living a sacramental life is the great gift and calling of every Catholic, and we sometimes forget just how powerful and healing that is.

Learning the history of how a particular sacrament developed is a useful way to reignite our respect for its practice. For example, the rite of ordination, from apostolic times, teaches us that the prayers of consecration combined with the laying on of hands affects the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Here, when the bishop calls upon the Holy Ghost, an indelible spiritual mark impresses upon the soul of a man and he becomes typos tou Patros, the living image of God the Father. Here, he is graced for the duties of his vocation. Here, he becomes a priest forever.

It is particularly important for us to teach children that sacraments are so much more than a ceremony to prepare for; they are God's way of reaching down to us and offering us a lifelong gift—a gift of grace that gives us a glimpse of heaven and a taste of eternity.

Baptism - Through Baptism, our sins are washed away, Sanctifying Grace first enters our soul, and we are able to receive the other Sacraments.

Penance - We should repeatedly use the Sacrament of Penance to ask Our Lord for forgiveness, and to receive the extra graces we need to resist temptation.

Holy Eucharist - The Holy Eucharist is the Sacrament in which Jesus Christ is physically present under the appearances of bread and wine.

Confirmation - Confirmation strengthens our commitment to be loyal followers of Jesus Christ. Soldiers of God.

Holy Orders - Through Holy Orders, men receive the powers of the Catholic Priesthood.

Matrimony- Matrimony is the Sacrament made by Jesus Christ to sanctify the lawful union of a Christian man and a Christian woman.

Extreme Unction - Extreme Unction gives strength to both the body and the soul of the sick and dying.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
