Laetare Sunday, the fourth Sunday in the season of Lent. Traditionally, this Sunday has been a day of celebration, within the austere period of Lent.

The term "Laetare Sunday" comes from the Latin laetare, the singular imperative of laetari: "to rejoice". This Sunday gets its name from the first few words of the traditional Latin Introit for the Mass of the day, "Laetare Jerusalem" — "Rejoice, O Jerusalem".

Historically, the day was also known as "the Sunday of the Five Loaves," from the story of the miracle of the loaves and fishes.

Laetare Sunday is also known as Mothering Sunday and Rose Sunday, either because the golden rose sent by Popes to Catholic sovereigns used to be blessed at this time, or because the use of rose-colored (rather than violet) vestments was permitted on this day.

Laetare Sunday is considered a day of relaxation from normal Lenten duties; a day of hope with Easter within sight. Traditionally, weddings (otherwise banned during Lent) could be performed on this day, and servants were released from service for the day to visit their mothers (hence 'Mothering Sunday').

Laetare Sunday is 21 days before Easter Sunday, a moveable feast based on the cycles of the moon. The date can be any day between 1 March and 4 April; occurrence in April is considered to be uncommon; the last occurrence was on 3 April 2011 and the next will be on 4 April 2038. The earliest occurrence of Laetare Sunday in the twenty-first century was on 2 March 2008.

By its anticipation of the joy of Easter, Laetare Sunday is meant to give us hope and encouragement as we slowly progress towards the Paschal Feast.

In addition to attending Sunday Mass, a family might choose to mark Laetare Sunday by anticipating the Easter feast; a Sunday brunch with roses on the table would be appropriate. A family might also wish, during this beginning period of spring, to plant a rose bush on this day.

The Chapel of the Holy Family's History

The Chapel of the Holy Family was founded in order to preserve the traditional practices and to maintain inviolate the traditional Catholic Faith, as taught and observed prior to Vatican Council II.

The story began in the '70s when a group of Catholics in Brevard County decided to hold rosary vigils regularly, imploring God's help to obtain the Tridentine (traditional Latin) Mass. For years they traveled long distances to Mass while meeting for weekly rosaries in town.

The first public monthly Mass was on May 24, 1981 at the American Legion hall in Cocoa. In 1983 the Mass was moved to Community Centers in Melbourne and the frequency increased to twice per month if a priest was available.

Groundbreaking for the existing chapel took place on November 4, 1993 after long hours of planning and substantial financial commitments, including a generous bequeathment. Many of the items in the chapel were rescued from Catholic churches scheduled for closing or demolition. The altar came from Fort Pierce, statues from Pennsylvania and the 140 year old cross atop the chapel from St. Ann's Church in Brooklyn.

The first Mass offered in the Chapel of the Holy Family was on June 26, 1994.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
