Commentary: In the Gospel of the Third Sunday after Easter, the risen Christ announces for the first time His approaching departure. He is to ascend to His Father, but He must leave us behind in the world with all its dangers. However, the Easter spirit and the Easter light will guide us safely through the dangers and trials of our earthly life.

Filled with this Easter spirit, we rejoice at the thought of the departure of Christ, and in spite of the certainty of our separation from Him, we break forth in a joyous Easter song, the Alleluia. "Shout with joy to God all the earth, alleluia; sing ye a psalm to His name, alleluia" (Introit).

Ah, would that we were filled and vivified by this Easter spirit! For that grace we pray in the Kyrie and in the Collect: "O God, . . . grant to all those who profess to be Christians the grace to reject those things which are contrary to that name, and to follow such things as are agreeable to it.

That is the spirit of Easter, the spirit of baptism, whose marvelous power the Epistle explains.

Have we really acquired this spirit? Has Easter really created this spirit and this attitude in our souls? If it has, then the Alleluia verse can be applied to us: "The Lord hath sent redemption to His people." Then we shall have no fear of that which must be true of every Christian: "It behooved Christ to suffer . . . and so to enter into His glory" (Alleluia).

Now Christ speaks in the Gospel: "A little while, and now you shall not see Me; and again, a little while, and you shall see Me. . . . And you shall be made sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy."

By means of the Easter spirit we are consoled in the suffering, which results from our being thus left behind. Having the Easter spirit, we know that there will be an eventual victory and an eternal resurrection. Baur

INSTRUCTION ON GOOD WORKS.

- What are good works? All actions of men, which are done according to the will of God, from love of Him, and by the help of grace.
- Which are the principal good works? Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. Prayer, including all acts belonging to the service of God; fasting, all mortifications of the body; almsgiving, all works of mercy.
- How many are the works of mercy? Two: corporal and spiritual.
- Which are the spiritual works of mercy? Those which have for their object the salvation of our neighbor; as, 1, to admonish the sinner; 2, to instruct the ignorant; 3, to counsel the doubtful; 4, to comfort the afflicted; 5, to bear wrongs patiently; 6, to forgive injuries and offences; 7, to pray for the living and the dead.
- Which are the corporal works of mercy? 1, To feed the hungry; 2, to give drink to the thirsty; 3, to clothe the naked; 4, to visit the prisoners; 5, to shelter the houseless; 6, to visit the sick; 7, to bury the dead (Matt. xxv. 42, 43).
- What is necessary to render works meritorious? 1, They must be good in themselves; 2, they must be done by the grace of God; 3, in the state of grace; 4, by free will; 5, with the good intention of pleasing God.
- Can we be saved without good works? No, for Christ says expressly, "Every tree that bringeth not good fruit shall be cut down and shall be cast into the fire." And that servant in the Gospel (Matt. xxv. 25) who neither wasted his talent nor yet traded with it but dug it into the earth and hid his lord's money, was thus cast into the outer darkness. Goffine

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
