Commentary: He will convince the world of sin. "And when He is come, He will convince the world of sin, . . . because they believed not in Me" (Gospel). Unbelief was the great sin of the Jews.

In spite of the prophecies of the Old Testament, which Christ manifestly fulfilled, in spite of His evident miracles, in spite of His resurrection on Easter morning, of which they themselves were the reluctant witnesses, the Jews refused to believe.

Therefore, after our Lord's ascension into heaven, it was part of the mission of the Holy Ghost to convince the world that the Jews erred in not accepting Christ. This was their great sin: the sin of unbelief.

The Holy Ghost worked through the apostles. On Pentecost He descended upon the apostles and called them to act as witnesses of Christ's resurrection. Emboldened by the power of the Holy Ghost, Peter faces the multitude of people in Jerusalem and declares: "This Jesus hath God raised again, whereof all we are witnesses" (Acts 2:32).

The Holy Ghost brings about a complete transformation in the apostles. They had been timid, but now they are filled with indomitable courage and holy daring. They had been slow of understanding, but now they are filled with divine wisdom and speak a language, which they had not learned. They had deserted their Lord and Master during His passion, and Peter had even denied Him; but now they are the intrepid teachers of His doctrine and the heralds of His resurrection. But the Holy Ghost assists them in other ways, too; for He gives them the power to work miracles, the reality of which no one can deny, and the significance of which no one can misconstrue.

Thus, the Holy Ghost convinces the world that the failure to accept the Christ whom the apostles preach is a terrible sin. We stand amazed at these works of the Holy Ghost in the apostles, and rejoice for Christ, whom the apostles bear witness to by the power of the Holy Spirit. "This is the stone which was rejected by you the builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other. For there is no other name under heaven given to men whereby we must be saved (Acts 4:11).

The Holy Ghost operates in the Church of Christ. He gives her holiness and the gift of miracles. A Church, which produces saints, bears the stamp of God's approval. The Holy Ghost has placed this unmistakable seal on the Church of Christ, for He produces in the Church the heroism of perfect love for God and man. "By this shall all men know that you are My disciples, if you have love one for another" (John 13:35).

The doctrine of the Church is holy; her moral practices are holy; her sacraments are holy; her prayer and her liturgy are holy. The life of her children is saintly, and she has produced millions of saints for heaven. Many of her children on earth have reached a high degree of sanctity, and all of this holiness is due to the operation of the Holy Ghost. Every man must acknowledge this Church as the true Church, as the Church established by Christ and sanctified by the Holy Ghost. Baur
