Corpus Christi: In 1246 AD Jacob Pantaleon, Archdeacon of Liege, made arrangements to introduce the festival of Corpus Christi in his diocese at the urgent request of St. Juliana prioress of a convent on Mount Cornillon.

His death initially prevented his intention from being put into effect. However, Cardinal Legate Hugh undertook to carry out his directions, and celebrated the festival for the first time in the year 1247, in the Church of St. Martin at Liege.

Several bishops followed this example, and the festival was observed in many dioceses, before Pope Urban IV, in the year 1264, ordered its celebration by the whole Church. This order was confirmed by Clement V, at the Council of Vienna in 1311, and the Thursday after the octave of Pentecost appointed for its celebration.

In 1317 Pope John XXII instituted the solemn procession. This feast by reason of the procession became very popular with the faithful who were thereby enabled to proclaim not only their faith in the Real Presence but also their gratitude to God for all the benefits they derive from this great Sacrament. St. Thomas Aquinas composed both Office and Mass for this feast.

THE TRUE ENEMIES OF THE CHURCH ARE BAD CATHOLICS (From Rorate)

It is a well-known account. Sister Marie Bernarde (Bernadette) Soubirous is in the convent of the Sisters of Charity in Nevers, it is 1870, war is raging throughout northern France as the Prussian-led German armies march towards Paris.

The first printed version of the account, published while she was still living, is the following.

A visitor came to Bernadette at that time and asked her the following questions:

- Did you receive, in the grotto of Lourdes, or after then, any revelations related to the future and fate of France? Did not the Blessed Virgin deliver any warning for France, any threats? - No
- The Prussians are at our gates; does that not cause you any fear? - No.
- There is thus nothing to fear? - I only fear bad Catholics.
- You do not fear anything else? - No, nothing else.

These are words of great wisdom from the Saint.

The true enemies of the Church, those who can cause Catholics great harm and peril of damnation, are those who are within, the "bad Catholics" Saint Bernadette feared so much. And they are more dangerous the more powerful they are, the higher in the Hierarchy they are, and the more empowered they feel, their fury, deception and bold vulgarity unleashed. We must all be vigilant as "soldiers of Christ".

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
