Extended Solemnity of the Sacred Heart

GOSPEL for the Feast of the Sacred Heart of Jesus John 19:31-37 At that time, the Jews, since it was the day of Preparation, in order that the bodies would not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a high day), asked Pilate that their legs might be broken and that they might be taken away. The soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who had been crucified with Him. But when they came to Jesus and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs. But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and at once there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness--his testimony is true, and he knows that he is telling the truth--that you also may believe. For these things took place that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not one of His bones will be broken." And again, another Scripture says, "They will look on Him whom they have pierced."

St. John the Baptist was born through the intercession of God to Zachariah and Elizabeth, who was otherwise too old to bear children. According to scriptures, the Angel Gabriel visited Elizabeth and Zachariah to tell them they would have a son and that they should name him John. Zachariah was skeptical and for this he was rendered mute until the time his son was born and named John, in fulfillment of God's will.

When Elizabeth was pregnant with John, she was visited by Mary, and John leapt in her womb. This revealed to Elizabeth that the child Mary carried was to be the Son of God.

John began public ministry around 30 AD, and was known for attracting large crowds across the province of Judaea and around the Jordan River. When Jesus came to him to be baptized, John recognized him and said, "It is I who need baptism from you." Jesus told John to baptize Him anyway, which he did, whereupon the heavens opened, and the Spirit of God was seen like a dove. The voice of God spoke, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

John's attitude toward Jesus was: "He must increase; I must decrease." John instructed his followers to turn to Christ, calling Him the "Lamb of God" and these people were among the first Christians.

Following his baptism of Christ, John's popularity grew so much that he alarmed King Herod. Herod ordered him arrested and imprisoned. John spoke with Herod on several occasions and condemned his marriage to his half-brother's wife.

This condemnation would be his downfall as King Herod promised to grant a wish to his daughter. In revenge for John the Baptist's condemnation of her mother's scandalous marriage to Herod, she asked for John's head. King Herod reluctantly obliged.

St. John the Baptist died sometime between 33 and 36 AD. His feast day is June 24th.

The Feast of Saints Peter and Paul is a liturgical feast in honor of the martyrdom in Rome of the apostles Saint Peter and Saint Paul, which is observed on 29 June. The celebration is of ancient Christian origin, the date selected being the anniversary of either their death or the translation of their relics.

The Feast is almost entirely devoted to St. Peter, the Bishop of Rome. St. Paul, the great apostle of the Gentiles is more especially honored on 30 June.

After the Descent of the Holy Ghost, St. Peter preached the Gospel in Judea and was cast into prison by Herod. He was miraculously delivered by an angel and established his See first at Antioch, and then, finally at Rome.

Like St. Paul, he died at Rome during the persecution of Nero (64-68), by being crucified head downward.

SACRED HEART OF JESUS

One of the soldiers, as the Gospel tells us, opened Jesus' Side with a spear, and, immediately, there came out blood and water. We must keep before us this text and the fact it relates, for they give us the true meaning of the Feast we are celebrating.

The importance of the event here related is strongly intimated, by the earnest and solemn way in which St. John follows up his narration. After the words just quoted, he adds: And he that saw it hath given testimony of it, and his testimony is true. And he knoweth that he saith true, that ye also may believe, for these things were done, that the Scripture might be full-filled.

Here the Gospel refers us to the testimony of the Prophet Zacharias, who, after predicting the Spirit of grace being poured out upon the house of David and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, says: They shall look upon Him whom they pierced. And, when they look upon his side thus pierced, what will they see there, but that great truth which is the summary of all Scripture — of all history: — God so loved the world, as to give it his Only Begotten Son; that whosoever believeth in him, may not perish, but may have eternal life?

This grand truth was, during the ages of expectation, veiled under types and figures; it could be deciphered but by few, and, even then, only obscurely; but it was made known with all possible clearness on that eventful day, when, on Jordan's banks, the whole sacred Trinity manifested who was the Elect, the Chosen One, of the Father, — the Son in whom he was so well pleased.

Yes, it was Jesus of Nazareth, the Son of Mary: but, there was another revelation, of deepest interest to us, which had still to be made: it was — how, and in what way, would the eternal life brought by this Jesus into the world, pass from him into each one of us?

This second revelation was made to us, when the soldier's spear opened the divine source, and there flowed from it that Water and Blood, which, as the Scripture tells us, completed the testimony of the Blessed Three. There are three, says St. John, who give testimony in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are One. And there are three that give testimony on earth: the Spirit, and the Water, and the Blood: and these three are one, that is, they are one because they concur in giving the one same testimony. And, this, continues St. John, is the testimony: — that God hath given to us eternal life, and that this life is in his Son.

These words contain a very profound mystery; but we have their explanation in this Feast, which shows us how it is through the Heart of the Man-God that the divine work is achieved, and how, through that same Heart, the plan, which was conceived, from all eternity, by the Wisdom of the Father, has been realized. Dom Prosper Gueranger

GOSPEL for the Third Sunday After Pentecost, within the Octave of the Sacred Heart

GOSPEL Luke 15:1-10 At that time, the tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to hear Him. And the Pharisees and the scribes grumbled, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them." So He told them this parable: "What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if he has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the open country, and go after the one that is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.' Just so, I tell you, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

"Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and seek diligently until she finds it? And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin that I had lost.' Just so, I tell you, there is joy before the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

*If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.*

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

Daily Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, filled with Infinite Love, broken by our ingratitude and pierced by our sins, yet loving us still, accept the consecration we make to You of all that we are and all we have.

Take every faculty of our souls and bodies, only day by day draw us nearer and nearer to Your Sacred Heart, and there, as we shall bear the lesson, teach us Your Holy Way. Amen.

"A partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who ... raise their mind with humble confidence to God."
