GOSPEL Luke 1:57-68 At that time, Elizabeth's full time of being delivered was come: and she brought forth a son. And her neighbors and kinsfolks heard that the Lord had showed his great mercy towards her: and they congratulated with her. And it came to pass that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child: and they called him by his father's name Zachary. And his mother answering, said: "Not so. But he shall be called John." And they said to her: "There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name." And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And demanding a writing table, he wrote, saying: "John is his name." And they all wondered. And immediately his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed: and he spoke, blessing God. And fear came upon all their neighbors: and all these things were noised abroad over all the hill country of Judea. And all they that had heard them laid them up in their heart, saying: "What do you think ye, shall this child be?" For the hand of the Lord was with him. And Zachary his father was filled with the Holy Ghost. And he prophesied, saying: "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel: because He hath visited and wrought the redemption of His people."

St. Elizabeth of Aragon, also known as Elizabeth of Portugal, T.O.S.F. (1271 – 4 July 1336), was queen consort of Portugal, a tertiary of the Franciscan Order and is a venerated saint. Elizabeth showed an early enthusiasm for her faith. She said the full Divine Office daily, fasted and did other penance, as well as attended twice-daily choral Masses. Religious fervor was common in her family, as she could count several members of her family who were already venerated as saints. The most notable example is her great-aunt, St. Elizabeth of Hungary, after whom she was named.

Her marriage to King Denis of Portugal was arranged in 1281 when she was 10 years old. It was only in 1288 that the wedding was celebrated, when Denis was 26 years old, while Elizabeth was 17.

Elizabeth quietly pursued the regular religious practices of her youth and was devoted to the poor and sick. Naturally, such a life was a reproach to many around her and caused ill will in some quarters. Eventually, her prayer and patience succeeded in converting her husband, who had been leading a sinful life.

She had two children: a daughter named Constance, who married King Ferdinand IV of Castile; a son Afonso, who later became King Afonso IV of Portugal.

After Denis' death in 1325, Elizabeth retired to the monastery of the Poor Clare nuns, now known as the Monastery of Santa Clara-a-Velha (which she had founded in 1314) in Coimbra. She joined the Third Order of St. Francis, devoting the rest of her life to the poor and sick in obscurity. During the great famine in 1293, she donated flour from her cellars to the starving in Coimbra. She was also known for being modest in her dress and humble in conversation, for providing lodging for pilgrims, distributing small gifts, paying the dowries of poor girls, and educating the children of poor nobles. She was a benefactor of various hospitals (Coimbra, Santarém and Leiria) and of religious projects (such as the Trinity Convent in Lisbon, chapels in Leiria and Óbidos, and the cloister in Alcobaça

In 1336 St. Elizabeth took to her bed with a fever from which she died on 4 July, in the castle of Estremoz. She earned the title of Peacemaker on account of her efficacy in solving disputes.

Although Denis' tomb was located in Odivelas, Elizabeth was buried in the Convent of Santa Clara in Coimbra, in a magnificent Gothic sarcophagus. After frequent flooding by the Mondego River in the 17th century, the Poor Clares moved her mortal remains to the Monastery of Santa Clara-a-Nova (also in Coimbra). Her body was transferred to the main chapel, where it was buried in a sarcophagus of silver and crystal.

She was beatified in 1526 and canonized by Pope Urban VIII on 25 May 1625. Her feast was inserted in the General Roman Calendar for celebration on 4 July. In the year 1694 Pope Innocent XII moved her feast to 8 July, so it would not conflict with the celebration of the Octave of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- The Board thanks you for your patience and understanding during the church renovations. During the months of July and August the pews are being reupholstered and the carpet in both the sanctuary and the church proper replaced. During this process half of the pews will be removed. Once this section is carpeted, those pews will be put back in the church and the other half removed while that section of carpet is replaced.
- Parishioners, friends and visitors are welcome to refreshments in the church hall following the 9:00 AM Mass.
- If you are new to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals, found in the pews, helpful in following the liturgy.
- Please consider including The Chapel of the Holy Family in your estate plans. The Chapel is grateful for your continuing support, which helps to preserve and sustain the traditional liturgy & faith of the Roman Catholic Church in the Melbourne area.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

PAUL VI THE NEW MASS AND THE NEW RELIGION II

Last week we discussed the symbol of the “Ephod” and how this was indicative of Paul VI’s identification with the Jewish High Priest Caiaphas. Today, I’m simply going to list some aspects of the “Legacy of Paul VI” as written in “Vatican II Exposed as False Catholicism,” by Frs. Francisco & Dominic Radecki, CMRI.

Antipope Paul VI:

- Proscribed the Tridentine Latin Mass.
- Eliminated several Holy Days of Obligation.
- Formulated a New Mass and New Sacraments.
- Treated with hostility the defenders of the Faith.
- Lifted censures on Freemasonry.
- Allowed Communion to be distributed in the hand.
- Abolished abstinence from meat on Fridays in 1966.
- Created “Episcopal Conferences” with no defined limits.
- Permitted Orthodox and Protestants to receive the Eucharist.
- Downplayed devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary and the Saints.
- His “Decree for Mixed Marriages” did not require Catholic Baptism of Children. This was later included in the 1983 Code of Canon Law.
- Refused to receive groups of traditional priests and laity, but happily received Modernists, Freemasons, Communists, leftists, and enemies of the Church.
- Replaced more traditionally minded figures in the Church with liberal Modernists, pro-Communists, and [alleged] Freemasons.
- During his 15-year reign more than 55,000 priests left the priesthood, including 30,000 who were laicized. In addition, more than 50,000 nuns abandoned the Religious Life.

As head of the Post-conciliar Church, Paul VI is responsible for the heresy, sacrilege and loss of faith resulting from this Liturgical Movement.

By forming an invalid New Mass and invalid or questionably New Sacraments, he has deprived millions of countless graces.

He directed the destruction of Religious Life and condoned heretical catechisms. [pp. 277-78]

Paul VI’s legacy is a terrible legacy indeed.

DRESS POLICY

When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
