Seventh Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 7:15-21 At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "Beware of false prophets, who come to you in the clothing of sheep, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. By their fruits you shall know them. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, and the evil tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can an evil tree bring forth good fruit. Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit, shall be cut down, and shall be cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits you shall know them. Not everyone that saith to me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven: but he that doth the will of My Father who is in heaven, he shall enter into the kingdom of heaven."

St. James, also called James, son of Zebedee, or James the Greater, (born, Galilee, Palestine—died 44 AD, Jerusalem; feast day July 25), one of the Twelve Apostles, distinguished as being in Jesus' innermost circle and the only apostle whose martyrdom is recorded in the New Testament (Acts 12:2).

James is styled "the Greater" to distinguish him from the Apostle James "the Less", with greater meaning older or taller, rather than more important. James the Greater was the brother of John the Apostle.

James is described as one of the first disciples to join Jesus. The Synoptic Gospels state that James and John were with their father by the seashore when Jesus called them to follow him.[Matt. 4:21–22][Mk.

1:19–20] James was one of only three apostles whom Jesus selected to bear witness to his Transfiguration.

Salome, the mother of James and John asked Jesus to grant them seats on His right and left in His glory. Jesus asked if they were ready to drink from the cup He was going to drink from and said the honor was not even for Him to grant.

James and his younger brother, St. John the Apostle, are designated Boanerges (from the Greek boanerges), or "Sons of Thunder" (Mark 3:17), perhaps because of their characteristic fiery zeal (Mark 9:38 and Luke 9:54). James and his brother wanted to call down fire on a Samaritan town but were rebuked by Jesus.

Following Christ's Ascension, James spread the Gospel across Israel and the Roman kingdom as well. He traveled and spread the Word for nearly forty years in Spain.

Later, James returned to Jerusalem but was martyred for his faith, beheaded by order of King Herod Agrippa I of Judaea. According to Spanish tradition, his body was taken to Santiago de Compostela.

Saint James is the patron saint of Spain. The traditional pilgrimage to the grave of the saint, known as the "Way of St. James", has been the most popular pilgrimage for Western European Catholics from the Early Middle Ages onwards. When July 25th falls on a Sunday, it is a "Holy Year" and a special east door is opened for entrance into Santiago Cathedral. In the 2004 Holy Year, 179,944 pilgrims were received at Compostela. In the 2010 Holy Year the number was 272,412 and in 2021 it was 178,912. The next Holy Year is 2027.

St. James the Greater Prayer

O glorious Apostle, St. James, who by reason of thy fervent and generous heart wast chosen by Jesus to be a witness of His glory on Mount Tabor, and of His agony in Gethsemane;
thou, whose very name is a symbol of warfare and victory:
obtain for us strength and consolation in the unending warfare of this life,
that, having constantly and generously followed Jesus, we may be victors in the strife and deserve to receive the victor's crown in heaven.
Amen.

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

Recently, the world has witnessed the spectacle of radical pro-abortion Speaker of the House Nancy Pelosi in cordial meeting with the person the world thinks of as Sovereign Pontiff of the Catholic Church — Jorge Mario Bergoglio — otherwise known by his stage name: “Pope” Francis.

This behavior continues to create scandal among the faithful. Indeed, even many in the secular world look upon Bergoglio with dismay and distress, thus leading at least some, to a loss of faith not only in the Catholic Church, but in everything they once knew to be True, Beautiful and Good.

I present a couple of Francis’ statements since his misbegotten “election” on 13 March 2013:

“I believe in God, not a Catholic God, there is no Catholic God...”

Well now, whatever you believe a true Pope to be would necessarily include faith in a Catholic God, right? Many Popes and faithful went to their deaths essentially proclaiming their belief in just that reality. And yet Bergoglio dismisses the idea as if he was telling everyone what he had for lunch! This statement alone, publicly revealed, puts him in the category of a manifest heretic, nay even an apostate, making him unfit to be a Catholic, let alone head of the Catholic Church.

Recently when questioned about [President] Biden’s extremely “liberal” support for abortion Francis said:

“I leave it to his conscience and that he speak to his bishop!”

In traditional moral theology we speak of an “upright conscience,” — a person can have a true or false conscience — but here Bergoglio talks of conscience as if it can overrule even God’s law in the form of “Thou shalt not Kill.” Can this be the kind of thing a true Pope teaches? No, absolutely not.

Before we venture into theology or even Canon Law, common sense would tell us that this man, far from being a Pope, is actually an enemy of Christ and the Church he founded. As a matter of fact, virtually everything he has said or done these past nine years confirms this.

The painful reality is that Francis is the inevitable result of the teaching of the “Second Vatican Council” which met from 1962-65. Many do not want to accept this, but logic and orthodox theology certainly leads us there. I will attempt to explain this unfortunate reality in subsequent installments of my “Reflections.”

Attention Altar Boys

All Altar boys are invited to a Beach Day on Sunday, August 7th at 2pm.
Please contact James DeFillips at 321-288-8467 for additional details.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament.

Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts.

Ladies, use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
