Gospel Commentary In this parable the king is our Heavenly Father who has espoused His only-begotten Son to the Church, and on this occasion prepares the most sumptuous marriage-feast by giving the evangelical doctrine, the holy Sacraments, and the heavenly joys.

The servants sent to invite the guests are the prophets, apostles and Disciples of Christ.

Those invited are the Jews who despised the honor and grace of the divine King, destined for them, abused and killed His servants, and were, therefore, cast aside and with their city Jerusalem, destroyed by the armies of their enemies, as a just punishment; in their stead the heathens and all those nations were called, who were on the broad road to destruction, and who now occupy the places of the unfortunate Jews at the marriage feast of the Church, and shall also occupy them in heaven.

In the Jews to whom Christ addressed this parable, is verified that many of them, nay, all are called, but few chosen, because they would not heed the invitation.

Saint Francis of Assisi born circa 1181, in Assisi, abandoned a life of luxury for a life devoted to Christianity after hearing the voice of God, who commanded him to rebuild the Christian church and live in poverty. Known for his ministries, St. Francis was an Italian Catholic friar, deacon, philosopher and preacher. He founded the men's Order of Friars Minor, the women's Order of Saint Clare, the Third Order of Saint Francis and the Custody of the Holy Land.

Later in life, Francis received a vision that left him with the stigmata of Christ — marks resembling the wounds Jesus Christ suffered when he was crucified — making Francis the first person to receive such holy wounds.

During his life he also developed a deep love of nature and animals and is known as the patron saint of the environment and animals. In 1223, St. Francis arranged for the first Christmas live nativity scene.

St. Francis of Assisi died on October 3, 1226, at the age of 44, while listening to a reading he had requested of Psalm 142. Today, Francis has a lasting resonance with millions of followers across the globe. He was canonized as a saint just two years after his death, on July 16, 1228, by his former protector, Pope Gregory IX.

Saint Francis' feast day is observed on October 4th.
