Passion Sunday

GOSPEL (John 8:46-59) At that time, Jesus said to the crowds of the Jews, "Which of you shall convince Me of sin? If I say the truth to you, why do you not believe Me: He that is of God hears the words of God. Therefore, you hear them not, because you are not of God."

The Jews therefore answered and said to Him: "Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan and hast a devil?" Jesus answered:

"I have not a devil: but I honor my Father. And you have dishonored Me. But I seek not My own glory: there is One that seeks and judges. Amen, amen, I say to you: If any man keeps My word, he shall not see death forever."

The Jews therefore said: "Now we know that Thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and Thou says: If any man keep My word, he shall not taste death forever. Art Thou greater than our father Abraham who is dead?"

And the prophets are dead. Whom dost Thou make Thyself?"

Jesus answered: "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father that glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God. And you have not known Him: but I know Him. And if I shall say that I know Him not, I shall be like to you, a liar.

But I do know Him and do keep His word. Abraham your father rejoiced that he might see My day: he saw it and was glad."

The Jews therefore said to Him: "Thou art not yet fifty years old. And hast Thou seen Abraham?" Jesus said to them:

"Amen, amen, I say to you, before Abraham was made, I AM." They took up stones therefore to cast at Him. But Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple.

The Annunciation (from Latin annuntiatio), also referred to as the Annunciation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, is the Catholic celebration of the announcement by the Archangel Gabriel to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she would conceive and become the mother of Jesus, the Son of God, marking His Incarnation. "I am the Lord's servant," Mary answered. "May your word to me be fulfilled."

According to Luke 1:26, the Annunciation occurred "in the sixth month" of Elizabeth's pregnancy with John the Baptist. Many Christians observe this event with the Feast of the Annunciation on March 25th, an approximation of the northern vernal equinox nine full months before Christmas, the ceremonial birthday of Jesus.

The Annunciation is a key topic in Christian art. Depictions of the Annunciation go back to early Christianity, with the Priscilla catacomb including the oldest known fresco of the Annunciation, dating to the 4th century. It has been a favorite artistic subject in both the Christian East and as Roman Catholic Marian art, particularly during the Middle Ages and Renaissance, and figures in the repertoire of almost all of the great masters. The figures of the Virgin Mary and the Angel Gabriel, being emblematic of purity and grace, were favorite subjects of Roman Catholic Marian art, where the scene is also used to represent the perpetual virginity of Mary via the announcement by the Angel Gabriel that Mary would conceive a child to be born the Son of God.

Works on the subject have been created by artists such as Sandro Botticelli, Leonardo da Vinci, Caravaggio, Duccio, Jan van Eyck, and Murillo among others. The mosaics of Pietro Cavallini in Santa Maria in Trastevere in Rome (1291), the frescos of Giotto in the Scrovegni Chapel in Padua (1303), Domenico Ghirlandaio's fresco at the church of Santa Maria Novella in Florence (1486), and Donatello's gilded sculpture at the church of Santa Croce, Florence (1435) are famous examples.

Both the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox Churches hold that the Annunciation took place at Nazareth, but slightly differ as to the precise location. The Basilica of the Annunciation marks the site preferred by the former, while the Greek Orthodox Church of the Annunciation marks that preferred by the latter.

"Hail Mary, full of grace. The Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus."

What Is Passiontide? The last two weeks of Lent is "Passiontide"- time more focused on the passion and death of Christ. The Fifth Sunday of Lent is called "Passion Sunday." The sacred images are covered in purple cloth so as to dwell more closely on the sufferings of Christ. Veils over sacred images keep our minds on the promise of Easter. These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready.

The Chapel of the Holy Family's History

The Chapel of the Holy Family was founded in order to preserve the traditional practices, and to maintain inviolate the traditional Catholic Faith, as taught and observed prior to Vatican Council II.

The story began in the '70s when a group of Catholics in Brevard County decided to hold rosary vigils regularly, imploring God's help to obtain the Tridentine (traditional Latin) Mass. For years they traveled long distances to Mass while meeting for weekly rosaries in town.

The first public monthly Mass was on May 24, 1981 in the American Legion hall in Cocoa. In 1983 the Mass was moved to Community Centers in Melbourne and the frequency increased to twice per month if a priest was available.

Groundbreaking for the existing chapel took place on November 4, 1993 after long hours of planning and substantial financial commitments, including a generous bequeathment. Many of the items in the chapel were rescued from Catholic churches scheduled for closing or demolition. The altar came from Fort Pierce, statues from Pennsylvania and the 140 year old cross atop the chapel from St. Ann's Church in Brooklyn. The first Mass to be offered in the Chapel of the Holy Family was on June 26, 1994.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

WELCOME We're glad you're here

If you are new to the chapel, Welcome.
New parishioners please consult Father Safreed before the reception of sacraments.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
