St. Joachim, Father of the BVM

GOSPEL Matt. 1:1-16 The book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham: Abraham begot Isaac. And Isaac begot Jacob. And Jacob begot Judas and his brethren. And Judas begot Phares and Zara of Thamar. And Phares begot Esron. And Esron begot Aram. And Aram begot Aminadab. And Aminadab begot Naasson. And Naasson begot Salmon. And Salmon begot Booz of Rahab. And Booz begot Obed of Ruth. And Obed begot Jesse. And Jesse begot David the king. And David the king begot Solomon, of her that had been the wife of Urias. And Solomon begot Roboam. And Roboam begot Abia. And Abia begot Asa. And Asa begot Josaphat. And Josaphat begot Joram. And Joram begot Ozias. And Ozias begot Joatham. And Joatham begot Achaz. And Achaz begot Ezechias. And Ezechias begot Manasses. And Manasses begot Amon. And Amon begot Josias. And Josias begot Jechonias and his brethren in the transmigration of Babylon. And after the transmigration of Babylon, Jechonias begot Salathiel. And Salathiel begot Zorobabel. And Zorobabel begot Abiud. And Abiud begot Eliacim. And Eliacim begot Azor. And Azor begot Sadoc. And Sadoc begot Achim. And Achim begot Eliud. And Eliud begot Eleazar. And Eleazar begot Mathan. And Mathan begot Jacob. And Jacob begot Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

St. Joachim was the ever-chaste husband of St. Anne, the mother of our Blessed Virgin. Though advanced in years, Sts. Joachim and Anne remained fervent in their prayers to be blessed with a child. God was pleased with their devotion and chose to bless them with a miraculous conception, long past child-bearing years, as a result of their love of Him and love of each other.

Tradition teaches that while Joachim was away from home, an angel of God appeared to him in a vision. This angel promised that he and Saint Anne would bear a child who would be blessed through the ages. Upon waking from this vision, St. Joachim rushed home to share his excitement with his beloved wife. She was there to greet him, only to reveal the same good tidings as she was promised in another visitation from God's messenger.

What indescribably sweet happiness must have existed in their hearts to know God was granting them such a blessing! In gratitude and devotion to their Lord, St. Joachim delivered Mary to the service of the Temple when she was just three years old.

As a result of his exemplary love, devotion and obedience to the will of the Father, St. Joachim was named Patron of fathers, grandfathers, grandparents, married couples, cabinet makers and linen traders. He is shown in art forms as an older man, often in the company of his beloved wife, St. Anne, and sometimes with the Blessed Mother and Jesus.

Images of Saint Joachim are often identified by the presence of his associated symbols. A book or scroll represents linen makers, a shepherd's staff for the Christian word, and a basket of doves represents peace. He is almost always dressed in green, the color of hope.

Prayer to St. Joachim

O Glorious St. Joachim, devoted husband of Anne, father of our Blessed Mother Mary and grandfather to our Lord, Jesus, you have shown us the need for religion as the foundation for a happy family life.

Through your intercession may I obtain the graces I need, that I may sanctify my home and lead the souls entrusted to my care to eternal glory. Amen

You Are Invited to join The Altar & Rosary Society

Please attend the next meeting following the 9:00 am Mass on Saturday, September 5, 2020

You may be asking yourself, "What is the Altar & Rosary Society, and what are my responsibilities if I become a member? The purpose of the A&R Society is to cultivate and promote a greater devotion to Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar through Our Lady as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary; likewise, to employ ways and means to secure the adornment of the sanctuary of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Meetings are held the first Saturday of the month except during the summer months.

- If you are new to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals, found in the pews, helpful in following the liturgy.

Following in Paul's Footsteps for a Truly Christian Life ~ If any of the early Christians had their doubts about Paul's sincerity, it was certainly dispelled by the manner of life he took up after encountering our Lord on the road to Damascus. The former persecutor travelled all about the eastern Mediterranean and ultimately to Rome, he was stoned, and beaten with whips, and suffered shipwreck; each several times. Finally, he died for the Faith, being beheaded in Rome on the same day Saint Peter was crucified. We might say that Paul's was the "ultimate" conversion story.

Paul is pretty humble about what happened to him; he may very well have been a Pharisee, but he wasn't like the one we read about last week in our Lord's parable about the proud being humbled and the humble being exalted. Like any good and humble man, Paul gives credit where it is due: It is the grace of God that made him a Christian and made him an apostle; it was this grace of God that was "fruitful in him."

We can take a lesson from Paul's humble statements and make use of his experiences to further the process of our own "conversion." (Remember that our spiritual life is a sort of continuing "conversion"; a continuous movement away from the devil and sin in all of its forms; a continuous movement toward God and unity with His holy will.) The lesson, of course, is that our spiritual pursuits require both the grace of God, and some effort on our part; what we sometimes call "cooperating with the grace of God."

Now, in that all of us have received God's grace through the Sacrament of Baptism, our primary duty along those lines is to endeavor to grow in that grace. God listens to our prayers and the prayers of those concerned with us; and by the various outward physical signs of the Sacraments He increases His grace in us.

So, the first lesson learned is the requirement for prayer. Prayer is needed for ourselves, for the souls in Purgatory, for our friends and relatives, and even for those whom we don't really like very well. It means prayer of petition for things needed, prayer of adoration honoring God for his goodness, prayer of thanksgiving for all of His benefits, and penitential prayer for our sins and for the sins of the world.

The second lesson is the frequent reception of the Sacraments: frequent Confession, by which we move "away from the devil and sin in all of its forms," and frequent reception of our Lord in Holy Communion by which we move toward God and unity with His holy will.

And the third lesson is that lesson of cooperating with God's graces. It takes no imagination to see that if Paul had stayed comfortably at home he might have avoided stonings, and beatings, and shipwrecks, and other narrow forms of escape, but he would have done very little to make that "grace of God fruitful in him." Now, we might not be called to martyrdom, but certainly there are any number of things we can do, both to practice the Faith for ourselves, and also to give good example to those around us.

We were not there with the apostles when our Lord rose from the dead, so our testimony is not that of the eyewitness. But our testimony is very much like that of Saint Paul. Our testimony is in our prayer, in frequenting the Sacraments, and in the good example of a truly Christian life. And if we follow Paul's example; if we do these things, "the grace of God will not have been fruitless in us."

In the midst of the Second World War Pope Pius XII put the whole world under the special protection of our Savior's Mother by consecrating it to her Immaculate Heart and in 1944 decreed that in the future the whole Church should celebrate the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary on August 22, formally octave day of the Assumption. Pius XII instituted the feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary to obtain by her intercession, peace among nations, freedom for the Church, the conversion of sinners, the love of purity and the practice of virtue. May the Blessed Virgin Mary intervene and help the whole world, now!

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
