Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 18:9-14 At that time, Jesus spoke this parable also to some who trusted in themselves as just and despised others. "Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee and the other a publican. The Pharisee standing, prayed thus with himself: 'O God, I give thee thanks that I am not as the rest of men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, as also is this publican. I fast twice in a week: I give tithes of all that I possess.' And the publican, standing afar off, would not so much as lift up his eyes towards heaven; but struck his breast, saying: 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.' I say to you, this man went down into his house justified rather than the other: because everyone that exalts himself shall be humbled: and he that humbles himself shall be exalted."

The Story of the Solemnity of the Assumption of Mary

The dogma of the Assumption of Mary - has its roots in the early centuries of the Church.

The Catholic Church teaches that when Mary ended her earthly life, God assumed her, body and soul into heaven.

This belief traces its roots back to the earliest years of the Church. While a site outside of Jerusalem was recognized as the tomb of Mary, the earliest Christians maintained that "no one was there".

According to St. John of Damascus, in the 5th century, at the Council of Chalcedon in 451, Roman Emperor Marcian requested the body of Mary, Mother of God. St. Juvenal, who was Bishop of Jerusalem replied "that Mary died in the presence of all the Apostles, but that her tomb, when opened upon the request of St. Thomas, was found empty; wherefrom the Apostles concluded that the body was taken up to heaven," the saint recorded.

By the 8th century, around the time of Pope Adrian, the Church began to change its terminology, renaming the feast day of the Memorial of Mary to the Assumption of Mary.

The belief in the Assumption of Mary was a widely held tradition, and a frequent meditation in the writings of saints throughout the centuries. However, it was not defined officially until the past century. In 1950, Pope Pius XII made an infallible, ex-cathedra statement in the Apostolic Constitution Munificentissimus Deus officially defining the dogma of the Assumption.

"By the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, of the Blessed Apostles Peter and Paul, and by our own authority, we pronounce, declare, and define it to be a divinely revealed dogma: that the Immaculate Mother of God, the ever Virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory," the pope wrote.

Today, the Feast of the Assumption is marked as a major feast day and a public holiday in many countries. In most countries, including the United States, it is a Holy Day of Obligation.

VOLUNTEERS

CHOIR. The choir is actively recruiting members with an interest in supporting the organ and singing for Low and High Masses. Many voices in concert make for a lovely sound before God. Please see Nicholas DeFillips, Choir Director, for more information.

CATECHISM CLASSES will resume in September. We have taught First Communion classes, Confirmation Classes, and Apologetics classes for many years. A sincere Thank You to those teachers who have brought the faith to our children over the years. It is the responsibility of every parent to educate their children in the Faith, and it is invaluable to have them attend classes with children their age who are going through the same challenges as them and have their Traditional Faith reinforced by another parent. We need volunteers to teach or assist with these classes. Please see James DeFillips for more information.

SCHOOL. As many of you are aware, Holy Family is establishing a school. We need leads for a full time, paid, Teacher/ Administrator to begin the K-2 program in the Fall of 2021.

Please reach out to any Board member with information that may assist in our search.

Cast thy care upon the Lord and he shall sustain thee

Commentary: The Psalmist tells us that God: “has regard to the prayer of the humble: and He has not despised their petition.” We are called to humility. In our prayers, of course, but also in our day to day conduct. In everything we do, we should recognize that all of our talents come from God, and that by exercising those talents we give glory to God. Saint James tells us in his Epistle: “God resists the proud and gives grace to the humble.” One ought not to boast, but neither should one display a false humility by boasting of one’s imagined shortcomings. If God gave you a particular talent or ability you should not be ashamed to use it. It is not sinful pride to do things well, to have pride in one’s workmanship or in maintaining a decent appearance.

Sinful pride comes from thinking oneself to be better than others, or in thinking that one has talents independently of God.

In today’s Epistle, Saint Paul is reminding the Corinthians that all of their spiritual benefits (and even a few physical benefits) are the work of the Holy Ghost. It is no different for us. When we come to pray, either in church or at home, we should humble ourselves and call upon the Holy Ghost to form our prayers. Ideally, we give ourselves over to the Holy Ghost, for as Saint Paul says: “all these things one and the same Spirit worketh, dividing to everyone according as He will.” “According as He will,” and not as we will. Remember that God knows all of our needs, and He knows how those needs should be satisfied, much better than we know.

It is not wrong to petition God for specific things. Doing so acknowledges our dependence on Him and is a perfectly reasonable and praiseworthy form of prayer. Yet it is more perfect to state only our wants and needs and let God determine how they are to be satisfied. You will recall that our Lady got her Divine Son to work His first miracle with nothing more than the phrase “they have no wine.” She did not waste His time telling Him how she thought He should fix the problem.

The Church also has us call upon the Angels and the saints. Our guardian angel is appointed specifically to watch over us and ought to be no stranger to our prayers. The saints are all men and women who once faced many of the same trials and tribulations that we face—they are sympathetic, and they enjoy God’s favor. The Church has even designated some of them as patron saints and “helpers” with specific human problems. Of course, our Lady is a sort of “universal patron saint.”

So, prayer should always be humble. God does not need to hear how wonderful we are. And always pray to the Holy Ghost Who always knows precisely what will be of greatest benefit to us.

You Are Invited to join The Altar & Rosary Society

Please attend the next meeting following the 9:00 am Mass on Saturday, September 5, 2020

You may be asking yourself, “What is the Altar & Rosary Society, and what are my responsibilities if I become a member? The purpose of the A&R Society is to cultivate and promote a greater devotion to Our Lord in the Most Blessed Sacrament of the Altar through Our Lady as Queen of the Most Holy Rosary; likewise, to employ ways and means to secure the adornment of the sanctuary of the Most Blessed Sacrament.

Meetings are held the first Saturday of the month except during the summer months.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
