Forming the Next Generation of Crusaders at Louisiana Call to Chivalry Camp

Where do boys learn how to follow the footsteps of crusader saints and heroes? From June 21 to 29, fifty-eight young Catholic boys participated in the TFP Call to Chivalry Camp held in Abbeville, Louisiana. This year's camp was blessed with record attendance.

Camp Theme: Catholic Austria-Hungary

The rich Catholic history of the Austria-Hungarian Empire and its saints and heroes gave the boys models to emulate. One lecture, for example, told the story of St. John Capistrano and the Siege of Belgrade, where the Turks were successfully repelled and defeated. Another talk featured St. Clement Mary Hofbauer, a Redemptorist priest who fought the errors of the Enlightenment in Vienna. The life of Andreas Hofer, an innkeeper who valiantly resisted Napoleon's impious invasion of the Tyrol, gave the boys a new hero to admire.

The March for Life Will Continue!!!

Well, this is interesting news. With the US Supreme Court overturning Roe v. Wade the question is whether the March for Life will continue.

I must admit I was wondering this myself.

Mississippi Catholic reports that Jeanne Mancini, the March for Life president said the emphasis of the marches will change with an eye towards growing statewide marches. This makes perfect sense as the high court's decision really puts the power into the state's hands.

"We will still be having our federal legislative battles," Mancini said.

She added that "voices will have more impact at the state level" as state legislatures begin to debate legislation.

"So it's like less is more."

March for Life has already held state marches in Connecticut, Virginia and California, with ones planned for Pennsylvania in September and Ohio in October. Next year, Mancini said the plans are to double the number, and over the next six years, to have marches in all 50 state capitals.

TFP Visits Miami in Florida Tour Against Socialism

“I studied Marx, so I know how stupid [socialism] is” was one of the many expressions of support the ten volunteers of the American Society for the Defense of Tradition, Family and Property (TFP) received.

On July 4, 2022, the TFP launched a weeklong street campaign throughout Florida to denounce the evils of socialism. Taking St. Anthony Mary Claret, the great apostle of Cuba as their patron, TFP volunteers held their first campaign in Miami.

“Socialism Has Plagued My Country”

Despite the oppressive heat, the young volunteers campaigned outside Bayside Mall in downtown Miami. They unfurled the crimson TFP standard with its golden lion, held a banner that read “May God protect America from socialism,” and gave out “10 Reasons to Reject Socialism” fliers.

After 2 Inmates Mysteriously Become Pregnant, Prison Removes “Transgender woman” from female prison

Who could've seen this coming?

A transgender inmate who impregnated two women while incarcerated at Edna Mahan Correctional Facility for Women has been moved to a new facility, according to the Department of Corrections.

Demi Minor, 27, was transferred to Garden State Youth Correctional Facility, a prison for young adult offenders in Burlington County, last month, Dan Sperrazza, a Department of Corrections spokesman, said.

He said the DOC moved Minor to the vulnerable unit at the facility and that she is currently the only woman prisoner on the site. Sperrazza said he could not comment on the DOC's specific housing actions in Minor's case because of policies around privacy.

According to the corrections department, Minor is serving a 30-year sentence for manslaughter and is eligible for parole in 2037.

I love how the media is still calling Demi Minor a "she" even though "she" impregnated two actual women in the prison.
