Ninth Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Luke 19:41-47 At that time, when Jesus drew near to Jerusalem, seeing the city, He wept over it, saying: "If you had known, and that in this your day, even you, the things that are for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes. For the days shall come upon you when your enemies will throw up a rampart about you and surround you and shut you in on every side, and will dash you to the ground, and your children within you, and will not leave you one stone upon another, because you have not known the time of your visitation." And entering into the temple, He began to cast out them that sold therein and them that bought. Saying to them: "It is written: 'My house is the house of prayer.' But you have made it a den of thieves." And He was teaching daily in the temple.

Saint Ignatius of Loyola (23 October 1491 – 31 July 1556) was the youngest of 13 children from a family of minor nobility in northern Spain. As a young man Ignatius was inflamed by the ideals of courtly love and knighthood and dreamed of doing great things.

In 1521 Ignatius was seriously wounded in a battle with the French. While recuperating, he experienced a conversion. Reading the lives of Jesus and the saints made Ignatius happy. St. Ignatius had always dreamed of imitating heroic deeds, but now, the heroes had names like Francis of Assisi and Catherine of Siena. St. Ignatius also noticed something strange happening to him, God, he realized, was working within him. St. Ignatius realized that these feelings were clues to God's direction for him. As he traveled far and wide these experiences would prove to be the beginnings of Ignatian spirituality — and Jesuit ministry.

He became a Spanish Basque Catholic priest and theologian, who co-founded the religious order called the Society of Jesus (Jesuits) and became its first Superior General at Paris in 1541. The Jesuit order served the Pope as missionaries, and they were bound by a vow of special obedience to the sovereign pontiff in regard to the missions. They therefore emerged as an important force during the time of the Counter-Reformation.

St. Ignatius is remembered as a talented spiritual director. He recorded his method in a celebrated treatise called the Spiritual Exercises, a simple set of meditations, prayers, and other mental exercises, first published in 1548.

St. Ignatius died in Rome on 31 July 1556, as a result of the Roman Fever, a severe case of malaria that recurred in Rome, Italy, at different points in history. An autopsy revealed that he also had several kidney and bladder stones, a probable cause of the abdominal pains he suffered from later in life. He was placed in a wooden shrine, his body was then covered with his priestly garments. On 1 August the shrine was then buried in the small Maria della Strada Church. In 1568 that church was pulled down and replaced with the Church of the Gesù. Saint Ignatius was put into a new coffin and reinterred in the new church.

St. Ignatius was beatified in 1609, and then canonized, receiving the title of Saint on 12 March 1622. His feast day is celebrated on 31 July.

He is the patron saint of the Basque provinces of Gipuzkoa and Biscay as well as the Society of Jesus and was declared patron saint of all spiritual retreats by Pope Pius XI in 1922. St. Ignatius is also a foremost patron saint of soldiers.

Prayer of St. Ignatius ~ "Take, Lord, receive all my liberty, my memory, my understanding, my whole will, all that I have and all that I possess. You gave it all to me, Lord; I give it all back to you. Do with it as you will, according to your good pleasure. Give me your love and your grace; for with this I have all that I need."

Prayer to Know God's Will ~ "May it please the supreme and divine Goodness to give us all abundant grace, ever to know his most holy will and perfectly to fulfill it." —St. Ignatius of Loyola
(This prayer was added to the end of many letters St. Ignatius wrote.)

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Parishioners, friends and visitors are welcome to refreshments in the church hall following the 9:00 AM Mass.
- In your kindness, please remember to pray for those listed on the Memorial Page, and all the deceased members of the chapel.
- Please consider including The Chapel of the Holy Family in your estate plans. The Chapel is grateful for your continuing support, which helps to preserve and sustain the traditional liturgy & faith of the Roman Catholic Church in the Melbourne area.
- If you are new to the Tridentine Mass, you may find the grey or green paperback missals, found in the pews, helpful in following the liturgy.

CHOIR. The choir is actively recruiting members with an interest in supporting the organ and singing for Low and High Masses. Many voices in concert make for a lovely sound before God. Please see Nicholas DeFillips, Choir Director, for more information.

CATECHISM CLASSES will resume in September. We have taught First Communion classes, Confirmation Classes, and Apologetics classes for many years. A sincere Thank You to those teachers who have brought the faith to our children over the years. It is the responsibility of every parent to educate their children in the Faith, and it is invaluable to have them attend classes with children their age who are going through the same challenges as them and have their Traditional Faith reinforced by another parent. We need volunteers to teach or assist with these classes. Please see James DeFillips for more information.

SCHOOL. As many of you are aware, Holy Family is establishing a school. We need leads for a full time, paid, Teacher/ Administrator to begin the K-2 program in the Fall of 2021. Please reach out to any Board member with information that may assist in our search.

Commentary: Today's Gospel, Luke 19:41-47, helps Christians learn to be faithful disciples. Just as with the transfiguration, the Gospels of Luke add interesting details: for example, Moses and Elijah had been speaking with Jesus "of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem." His exodus? That loaded word points back to the sometimes-arduous journey of following Jesus. It's wonderful to find inspiration in a shining vision of Jesus, but the message to the Church then and now is that witnessing glory is one thing, following is another. After the vision is over, you look up and see, as the apostles did, "Jesus only," and you realize that, to get to the further glory of eternal life, you have to follow him to the cross.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well.

As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
