Passion Sunday

GOSPEL (John 8:46-59) At that time, Jesus said to the crowds of the Jews, "Which of you shall convince Me of sin? If I say the truth to you, why do you not believe Me: He that is of God hears the words of God. Therefore, you hear them not, because you are not of God."
The Jews therefore answered and said to Him: "Are we not right in saying that You are a Samaritan and hast a devil?" Jesus answered: "I have not a devil: but I honor my Father. And you have dishonored Me. But I seek not My own glory: there is One that seeks and judges. Amen, amen, I say to you: If any man keeps My word, he shall not see death forever."
The Jews therefore said: "Now we know that Thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets: and Thou says: If any man keep My word, he shall not taste death forever. Art Thou greater than our father Abraham who is dead?
And the prophets are dead. Whom dost Thou make Thyself?"
Jesus answered: "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing. It is My Father that glorifies Me, of whom you say that He is your God. And you have not known Him: but I know Him. And if I shall say that I know Him not, I shall be like to you, a liar. But I do know Him and do keep His word. Abraham your father rejoiced that he might see My day: he saw it and was glad." The Jews therefore said to Him: "Thou art not yet fifty years old. And hast Thou seen Abraham?" Jesus said to them: "Amen, amen, I say to you, before Abraham was made, I AM." They took up stones therefore to cast at Him. But Jesus hid Himself and went out of the temple.

HOLY SATURDAY - No 9:00 AM Mass. 7:00 PM: The Easter Vigil
EASTER SUNDAY - 10:00 AM: Easter Mass

Today Satan is doing everything he can to prompt man to eliminate reminders of the cross with secular administrations passing laws that legislate removal of this most Christian of symbols and the conciliar church sits by as this aberration intensifies everywhere for the church of Vatican II is impotent, unable to do anything, for God has withdrawn His graces from the bad tree (cf. Matthew 7: 15-20) and let it wither on its own for not only has it lost authority before Heaven, but authority with man; a mere figurehead that can be patronized but not obeyed for men no longer believe in the sacrifice of the Son of God and what it takes to imitate Him. Pride has taken over our hearts and all of us, yes, traditional Catholics as well, need this time of year to remind us that we are not holier than thou, not saved automatically. There is a price to pay, a stiff price that can be so beneficial, so sweet if we but accept and follow the will of God.

Let us humble ourselves, as we see the Creator of Heaven and earth thus obliged to hide Himself from men, who are bent on His destruction! Let us go back, in thought, to the sad day of the first sin, when Adam and Eve hid themselves because a guilty conscience told them they were naked. Jesus has come to assure us of our being pardoned, and lo! He hides Himself, not because He is naked - He that is to the saints the garb of holiness and immortality - but because He made Himself weak, that He might make us strong. Our first parents sought to hide themselves from the sight of God; Jesus hides Himself from the eyes of men. But it will not be thus forever. The day will come when sinners, from whose anger He now flees, will pray to the mountains to fall on them and shield them from His gaze; but their prayer will not be granted, and they shall see the Son of Man coming in the clouds of Heaven, with much power and majesty (St. Matthew 24: 30).

In case any one has forgotten that we are in Passiontide, the purple shrouds covering the Crucifix and statues and paintings within each church will remind us of this sobering thought and that there is only one way to appease God and that is by following His holy will and being willing to take up our cross as well and follow Him on the steep and grueling journey to Calvary. But before we do, we have this time of preparation so that we can fortify our courage to be able to complete the pilgrimage to the Cross. To do this, we must go within our own heart and soul, make a thorough examination of our conscience and repent fully of all our sins and make amendment to not sin again. Then, and only then, will we have the spiritual stamina to follow in Christ's footsteps? This is a time to veil our heart to preserve it for a greater love story. The ultimate Love Story that cannot be equaled, and, which, is a mere 13 days away and fast approaching. Are we ready? We should prepare as little children, free of the concupiscence of the world, the flesh and the devil, free to follow Christ in all our innocence. It takes humility, repentance, and prayer to be given the grace to never sin again. That is what will best prepare us for Passiontide. By Michael Cain

- Coffee and refreshments, following the 9:00 am Mass, will not be provided until further notice.
- In your kindness & your prayers, remember those listed on the Memorial Page, & all the deceased of Holy Family.
- Looking for an inexpensive site to purchase church veils? www.veilbytradition.com

What Is Passiontide? The last two weeks of Lent is “Passiontide”- time more focused on the passion and death of Christ. The Fifth Sunday of Lent is called “Passion Sunday.” The sacred images are covered in purple cloth so as to dwell more closely on the sufferings of Christ. Veils over sacred images keep our minds on the promise of Easter. These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready.

The Chapel of the Holy Family’s History

The Chapel of the Holy Family was founded in order to preserve the traditional practices, and to maintain inviolate the traditional Catholic Faith, as taught and observed prior to Vatican Council II.

The story began in the ‘70s when a group of Catholics in Brevard County decided to hold rosary vigils regularly, imploring God’s help to obtain the Tridentine (traditional Latin) Mass. For years they traveled long distances to Mass while meeting for weekly rosaries in town. The first public monthly Mass was on May 24, 1981 in the American Legion hall in Cocoa. In 1983 the Mass was moved to Community Centers in Melbourne and the frequency increased to twice per month if a priest was available.

Groundbreaking for the existing chapel took place on November 4, 1993 after long hours of planning and substantial financial commitments, including a generous bequeathment. Many of the items in the chapel were rescued from Catholic churches scheduled for closing or demolition. The altar came from Fort Pierce, statues from Pennsylvania and the 140 year old cross atop the chapel from St. Ann’s Church in Brooklyn. The first Mass to be offered in the Chapel of the Holy Family was on June 26, 1994.

With a secure and permanent location, Sunday Mass attendance increased from 50 to well over 100 in a short period of time, to the 250-300 that worship today. In 2003 a nearby home was purchased and serves as the rectory for our pastor. Through the generous support of our loyal parishioners we completed a major addition in 2011. This consisted of a large parish hall, library, office, and expansion of the priest’s and altar server’s sacristies.

Holy Family is a testimony to Divine Providence working through the perseverance of a staunch group who yearned to provide a refuge for our traditions where Holy Mass could be offered for the Roman Catholic faithful. God has been extremely kind to us in many ways. May He continue to bless us all.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

DRESS POLICY ~ When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
