GOSPEL Luke 7:11-16 At that time, Jesus went into a city that is called Naim: and there went with Him His disciples and a great multitude. And when He came nigh to the gate of the city, behold a dead man was carried out, the only son of his mother: and she was a widow. And a great multitude of the city was with her. Whom when the Lord had seen, being moved with mercy towards her, He said to her: "Weep not." And He came near and touched the bier. And they that carried it stood still. And He said: "Young man, I say to thee, arise." And he that was dead sat up and begun to speak. And He gave him to his mother. And there came a fear upon them all: and they glorified God saying: "A great prophet is risen up among us: and, God hath visited His people."

OCTOBER, MONTH OF THE HOLY ANGELS AND THE ROSARY The lovely month of October comes round and directs our attention and meditations to the rosary and the holy angels. The Blessed Virgin Mary is the Queen of Angels. The mysteries of the rosary are almost constantly suggestive of the angels. The announcement that she should be the mother of Jesus was made to Mary by an angel. No doubt the visitation to her cousin Elizabeth was attended by angels, though they were invisible. The birth of the Savior was announced by a glorious choir of angels, who sang,

"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will." The agony of our Lord in the garden was consoled by a ministering angel. In the glorious mysteries, especially, the ministry of the angels is conspicuous. At the resurrection angels came and rolled away the stone from the sepulchre and announced to the disciples that their Lord had risen from the dead. At the ascension a company of angels received him as he passed out of sight. The assumption and coronation of the Blessed Virgin were, of course, celebrated by an innumerable company of angels. Indeed, if we meditate at all on these interesting mysteries as we recite the various decades, it would seem the most natural thing in the world to include offices of these glorious messengers of God who are sent forth to minister to those who shall be heirs of salvation.

Catechism Classes - Reminder to parents that catechism classes are being held after the 9am Mass every Sunday. Classes for preparation of First Communion are held in the church proper, first pew in front of the Sacred Heart statue. Confirmation prep classes are held in the cry room at the back of the church and Apologetics classes are held on the outside patio on the NW side of the church hall or the Board Room (for video use). It is the responsibility of all Catholic parents to provide Catholic teaching to their children. These classes are designed to assist with formal teaching of the church and preparation for the sacraments. Attendance is required and recorded for the reception of the sacrament of First Communion and Confirmation. The Apologetics classes are for all Confirmed young adults, and interested new converts, to help explain the faith in our challenging times. Please see James DeFillips for more information.

MEMORIAL PAGE -To include your loved ones' names or family name on the memorial page over the coming year, please print the names clearly on the envelope designated "Memorial Page". Envelopes may be found in the rear of the church. The donation is $50 and checks should be made payable to Holy Family Chapel. Please place the donation in the provided envelopes and deposit the envelopes in the collection basket. Beginning in the month of November, the names will be published on the memorial page in the weekly, parish bulletin. In September 2020, there will be a Solemn Requiem Mass for the repose of the souls of all those listed.

"Purgatory exists, and the souls detained therein are helped by the suffrages of the faithful, but especially by the acceptable sacrifice of the altar." Council of Trent

FATHER SAFREED'S REFLECTIONS

This week I am presenting for your consideration selections from a column written recently by Fr. Anthony Cekeda. Fr. Cekada is a professor at Most Holy Trinity Seminary in Brooksville, FL., and an Associate Pastor at St. Gertrude the Great Catholic Church in Cincinnati, Ohio.

THE REMNANT'S LATEST: THE BLATHERING OF THE CLAMS

Recently, I received a letter urging traditional Catholics to circulate a video produced by the R&R publication The Remnant and calling for the Society of St. Pius X (SSPX) and the Fraternity of St. Peter (FSSP) to “unite in battle against our true enemy, the Modernists.”

In the video, Mission Impossible: Unite the SSPX and FSSP Clans, Remnant editor Michael Matt treats viewers to potted histories and fawning portraits of Archbishop Marcel Lefebvre, SSPX, FSSP. His is a whining, emotional appeal, entirely divorced from any discernible theological principle. We (all traditionalists, but especially SSPX-ers and FSSP-ers) are all “brothers” because we go to the Latin Mass. Why, oh why, can't we “just get along” to fight “the enemy.”

I addressed this question in a 2008 sermon, Why Can't We All Just Get Along? — because of Catholic doctrine, especially Catholic doctrine on the authority of the Roman Pontiff, which R&R outfits like the Remnant and SSPX have rejected both in theory and in practice. Moreover, the Church teaches that the principle for unity among Catholics is submission to the Roman Pontiff, who exercises authority from Christ to proclaim and protect the truths of the faith.

A Clueless Analogy — Mr. Matt, however, proposes another principle for unity...with a truly wacky analogy, based on a scene in the Mel Gibson movie Braveheart... “he appealed to a higher authority...the highest ranking noble, Robert the Bruce,” to unite the clans...

The block-headed cluelessness of such a statement leaves you wondering whether Mr. Matt intentionally ignored the analogy that should be obvious to any Catholic: the pope — if you claim to have one — is the highest ranking authority for Catholics and unity can only come from submission to him.

But no, in Mr. Matt's R&R world, the pope is not the “higher authority.” Instead, it is “tradition” or “the faith,” either as interpreted by Mr. Matt and R&R bloggers, or in the case of SSPX-ers, — The Position of the Society as Substitute Magisterium. For all these, it is truly a case of The Pope Speaks: YOU Decide!

As for “uniting” SSPX and FSSP, these organizations are already united in their communion with the apostate/false pope Bergoglio, and with the false church of Vatican II...SSPX and FSSP are not “battling” the modernists, both groups have in fact surrendered to them. Their members are all sold men...Put ‘em in a bag, shake ‘em up, and they all come out the same. This is so because the Matts, the R&R camp, SSPX-ers, FSSP-ers and others like them have promoted the poisonous theological error and the sinful moral principle that a Catholic is free to “recognize” someone as the Vicar of Jesus Christ on earth, but “resist” him by ignoring, denouncing or mocking his teachings, his laws, his liturgical ordinances and his commands.

Both SSPX and FSSP, moreover, are in the process of providing Bergoglio with exactly what he wants, and what the forces of anti-Christ have wanted for centuries: a one-world religion that unites every type of religious practice...into one, big, happy dogma-free organization that recognizes no absolute truth. Don't fall for it. Mr. Matt's clam chowder is just a new recipe on Bergoglio's menu for a One-World Church. Thank you, Fr. Cekada!

DRESS POLICY

When attending any functions at the chapel, especially Holy Mass, you are in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. Please dress accordingly, with due modesty and respect. Everyone should refrain from jeans, shorts or T-shirts. Ladies, please use a head covering, available in the rear of the church either for loan or for purchase.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
