Twenty Third Sunday After Pentecost

GOSPEL Matt. 9:18-26 At that time, as Jesus was speaking these things unto them, behold a certain ruler came up, and adored Him, saying: "Lord, my daughter is even now dead; but come, lay Thy hand upon her, and she shall live." And Jesus rising up followed him, with His disciples.

And behold a woman who was troubled with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind Him, and touched the hem of His garment. For she said within herself: "If I shall touch only His garment, I shall be healed." But Jesus turning and seeing her, said: "Be of good heart, daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole." And the woman was made whole from that hour.

And when Jesus was come into the house of the ruler and saw the minstrels and the multitude making a rout, He said: "Give place, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping." And they laughed Him to scorn.

And when the multitude was put forth, He went in, and took her by the hand. And the maid arose. And the fame hereof went abroad into all that country.

St. Charles Borromeo, Bishop, Confessor

Charles Borromeo, 2 October 1538 – 3 November 1584 ~ Charles was a descendant of nobility: the Borromeo family was one of the most ancient and wealthy in Lombardy, Italy. The third son in a family of six children, he was born in the castle of Arona on Lake Maggiore 36 miles from Milan on October 2, 1538. He attended the University of Pavia, where he applied himself to the study of civil and canon law.

On December 25, 1559 Borromeo's uncle Cardinal Giovanni Angelo Medici was elected as Pope Pius IV. The newly elected pope required his nephew to come to Rome, and on January 13, 1560 appointed him protonotary apostolic. Shortly thereafter, on January 31, 1560, the pope made him a cardinal.

Charles organized the third and last session of the Council of Trent, in 1562-63. He had a large share in the making of the Tridentine Catechism. Charles believed that abuses in the church arose from ignorant clergy. Among his most important actions, he established seminaries, colleges and communities for the education of candidates for holy orders. He was the Roman Catholic archbishop of Milan from 1564 to 1584.

Charles was a leading figure of the Counter-Reformation combat against the Protestant Reformation together with St. Ignatius of Loyola and St. Philip Neri.

Borromeo was described as "An austere, dedicated, humorless and uncompromising personality". Charged with implementing the reforms dictated by the Council of Trent, his uncompromising stance brought him into conflict with secular leaders, priests, and even the pope.

In 1584, during his annual retreat at Monte Varallo, he fell ill with "intermittent fever and ague", and on returning to Milan grew rapidly worse. After receiving the Last Sacraments, he died quietly on November 4th at the age of 46. Following his death, popular devotion to Charles arose quickly and continued to grow.

The Milanese celebrated his anniversary as though he were already a saint, and supporters in a number of cities collected documentation to support his canonization. In 1602 Clement VIII beatified Charles.

On November 1, 1610, Paul V canonized St. Charles and three years later, the church added his feast to the General Roman Calendar on November 4th.

This year marks the 26th anniversary of Holy Family Chapel at its present location and its 39th year of service to traditional Catholics in this area.

Thanks be to God the Chapel has enjoyed a blessed and prosperous existence for nearly 4 decades.

In order to preserve and grow the Catholic faith, given the challenges of the times we live in, we must pray for Divine assistance and plan for the next decades to come.

Kindly volunteer where needed and embrace new initiatives as they are introduced to move forward.

Gospel Commentary. When Jesus told the minstrels and the crowd that the girl was not dead, but sleeping, they laughed at Him, because they understood not the meaning of His words. Sensual-minded men generally act in the same manner towards the priests and ministers of God, who by their word and example admonish them to despise honors, riches and pleasures, and to embrace the love of poverty, humility and mortification.

This is, an unintelligible and hateful language to them, which they ridicule and mock just as they do when they hear that death is a sleep, from which we shall one day awake and be obliged to appear before the judgment-seat of God.

Woes to such scoffers by whose ridicule so many souls are led from the path "of virtue! What the devil formerly accomplished by tyrants in estranging men from God and a lively faith in Him and His Church, he seems to wish to accomplish in our days by the mockery, scoffs, and blasphemies of wicked men; for at no period have piety and virtue, holy simplicity and childlike faith, adherence to the holy Roman Church and her laws, reverence for her head, her ministers and priests, been more mocked, derided and blasphemed.

Unhappily many permit themselves to be induced by mockery to abandon piety, to omit the public practice of their faith, to conceal their Catholic conviction, and to lead a lukewarm, careless, indeed, sinful life.

Woe to the scoffers! They are an abomination to the Lord (Prov. III. 32.) who will one day require from their hands all the souls perverted by them.

Do not permit yourself to be led astray by those who ridicule your faith and zeal for virtue; remember the words of Jesus: He that shall deny me before men, I will also deny him before my Father who is in heaven. (Matt. X. 33.) Let Jesus be your consolation.

COVID-19 Virus: At this time, with regard to the Coronavirus event, we are not making any changes in the availability of sacraments or the schedule of mass. However, in an abundance of caution, we are asking all parishioners to make decisions that are prudent for their situation. Elderly parishioners are particularly at risk and are excused from their Sunday obligations. Any parishioners that feel uncomfortable are excused as well. As always, if you are exhibiting any signs of sickness or feel unwell, please be considerate of your fellow parishioners and do not attend mass or any chapel functions. Thank you for your understanding in these trying times. Please stay well and may God bless you.

Remember, also, Lord, Your servants and handmaids below who are gone hence before us, marked with the sign of faith, and sleep the sleep of peace. To them, Lord and to all that rest in Christ, grant, we implore You a place of happiness, light and peace through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.
